THE GLORIOUS MISSION OF THE UNION LA DIES .- If the remark that secession finds its most flippant and bitter advocates in the ranks of fa male fashionables is true, it is also true that the noblest and most earnest devotees of the Union cause are to be found in the persons of the Union ladies who everywhere "do what they can" to relieve the tick and wounded thrown upon every community by the sad events of the war. En thusias ically devoted to the cause of their country, says the Baltimore American, they lose no opportunity afforded them to show that they en tertain no half-way sentiments; and whether throwing out the stars and stripes to manifest their joy at every new triumph of the good cause, or welcoming with every delicacy and kind attention each new arrival of the gallant wounded who have maintained the honor of the nationality, there is no mistaking their earnestness-their sterling patriotism. Witnessing their heartfel! devotion to the cause, their anxiety to do something to advance it, and seeing their tearful sympathy as they move around the couches in our space of about thirty feet in the ranks of the hospitals where so much suffering abounds, no wonder the brave men who receive their kindly this officer's skill, that, seeing a group of rebel Missionary Society; $2,230 67 for the Tract Society attentions feel as if no sacrifice they have made is officers on an eminence, about two miles distant, too great, or that when restored they again seek he got their range and sent them a shell, which with eagerness the post of honor in a cause thus | killed two out of four of them. FROM THE MOUNTAIN DIVISION. THE BATTLE AT MCDOWELL .- The Wheeling telligencer has conversed with Lieutenant H. . Fickel, of Mansfield, Ohio, direct from Frenont's command, and who witnessed the battle at McDowell on the 8th, between Milrov's and Schenck's forces and the enemy under Jackson Mr. Fickel was a Lieutenant in the 321 Ohio, but resigned his position some time since and went nome. He returned to his regiment a short time age, and was with it during the engagement, not as a soldier but as a civilian, and rendered good service by assisting in carrying off and caring for the wourded. Our forces consisted of nine regiments in all, six under Milroy and three under Schenck, numpering not more than seven thousand men. Those under Milroy were the 75th, 73d, 32d, and 25th Ohio, and the 21 and 31 Virginia. Those under Schenck were the 82d and 55 h Ohio and the 5 h Virginia. It appears that Milroy's force had advanced from Monterey in the direction of Staun on as far as McDowell, two regiments ten miles beyond and one sixteen. Just before noon on the 8th the pickets of this advanced regiment were driven ic, and it fell back to the other two. They all fell back in good order to within a mile and a quarter of McDowell, where they made a stand. Skirmishing continued until a quarter to six in the evening, when the main fight began. RETURNING HOME .- The Nashville Union of the 21st says it is highly gratified to hear of the return of a large number of Tennesseeans from the unholy and wicked crusade against the Federal Government. It is noble and manly for us to forsake a bad cause when we see our errors. The editor earnestly and affectionately advises all persons who have come home from the rebel army o come forward without delay and renew their allegiance to that good old Government which never deprived them of a single right. They will be freely pardoned by so doing. The Government is kind and magnanimous.

The destruction of cotton and tobacco by the rebels, and its supreme folly, are well illutrated by the Madison Courier, which recalls an anecdote of the great Irish rebellion. A banker at Dublin had made himself very prominent in the government cause. Of course he was most essentially hated by the insurgents, and in their rogress through the country whenever they came across any of his notes of issue-his "promises to pay"-they threw them into the fire and burned hem up, with the exclamation, "We'll ruin the rascal." This is the only antecedent which we can draw from history for the insane conduct of the rebels in destroying their own property, which no one ever dreamed of taking from them. these- apt. KENTUCKY HARVESTER

COMBINED REAPER AND MOWER

GREATLY IMPROVED FOR 1862. THE GREAT AND CROWNING IMPROVEMENT TO OUR HARVESTER FOR 1862 WILL BE GIVING

THE KENTUCKY BROAD GAUGE REAPER

(Cuts a Swath 7 feet wide) THIS Machine is only intended for Resping, and was introduced by us in 1890, and is a complete success. The finger-bar and angle-bar are made of wrought icon. It is designed for the use of very large grain grossers, and is capable of cutting from 15 to 29 acres of any kin to figra, upor day with case. This Reaper will cut 26 inches high, and has all the modern improvement, such as raising or lowering the cutters and throwing them in and out of gear. . It is the mest complete, durable, and efficient Reaping Machine over made.

MILLER & MOORE, Manufaciurers,

Successors to MILLER, WINGATE, & Co., Corner of Ninth and Jeff Ison streets, Leuleville, Ky.

IN offering the KENTUCKY CLIPPER, improved for 1863, we are confident that all the requisites Mowing Machine will be found in it. It is cheap, light r in wight and draft, than any other yet n simple in construction, and durable. Among the points of excellence in this machine may be comme First—It has two independent driving-wheels, both drivers (yet with but one set of gear). The wheels are cacle coupled to the half by a pawl and ratchet, so that in backing the machine is cut of gear, yet when moving f rwar nay be thrown in or out of gear at pleasure.

Second—The cutter-bar is jointed or hinged, so as readily to adjust itself to uneven surfaces, and is easily raises by means of a lever, to pass over obstructions. It may also be raised and folded over in reser of the frame. It is made of the best cast steel, thin, but rigid and strong. The fingers are all made of wrought iron, and the cutting GENLIAMEN: I have tried your Kentucky Clipper in the same field with a "Buckeye," cutting clover. The ground was very rough, and consequently neither machine could cut very close; but there was a vast cliff sence between the cut of the Buckeye and the cut of the Clipper. The Clipper's work was at least (wenty five per cent, the best The Buckeye can cut a little more than the Clipper for two reisons, viz: It cuts a stalls wider, but very little, and the team is compelled to walk faster to make it cut of all; but, while I was in the field with the Clipper, I cut the most, for the Buckeye was detained for repairs, and this is the great difficulty with the Buckeye—it is so con

THEATRE. - The comedy of "Our Female American Cousin," under the magic inspiration of the genius of Miss Julia Daly, and its intrinsic wealth of fur, passed off again most acceptably last evening, and we do not remember when we have seen an audience so perfectly absorbed in er joyment. The situations are very laughable, the dialogue easy, and the plot full of interest, while Miss Daly enlivens her role by artistic cari cature, exquisite singing and incomparable burlesque dancing. To-night, by way of showing her infinite versatility, she will appear as "Kate O'Brien" in the comedy of "Perfection," with the songs of "Cherry Ripe" and "When Harmony Wakens," and also assume six characters-a perfect polyglot personation-in the farce of "In and

The Quartermaster does not know, can't know, who will take these certificates, and can only arrange for those who may desire their accounts turned into certificates. Hence the necessity of address ing him in time that he may make the requisition on Washington for the amounts needed. It will save a great deal of trouble to themselves and to the Department by carrying out these sug gestions.

PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY. Seventy-Third Session of the Old School.

COLUMBUS. May 20, 1862.

Not having time yesterday, let a few items from he reports of the Board of Publication and of Ed-cation be given to-day. Seventy volumes were elected by the Board of Publication for a soldiers' ibrary and afforded at about twenty dollars. The Home and Foreign Record circulated about 10,400 copies against 15,400 the previous year. The Sab-ath School Visitor circulated 55,000 copies against 000 the year before. The sales in the Deposity have been 646,951 pages of tracts and 110,6 volumes of books, with a net value of $16, 9 19—a large decrease. The value of books sold distributed by colporteurs is $23,289 14 here were reports from 103 colporteurs, who had volked an average of 101 days each during the ear, and who sold 73,318 volumes and gave away 4,311 volumes as well as 3,275,825 pages of 44 311 volumes as well as 3,27.5 825 pages of tracts, or an increase of 903,809 pages given away over last year. Receip's into the treasury for the year $76,786 91; expenditures, $70,700 45, leaving a balance of $6,086 36 on hand.

From the report of the Board of Education are gleaned the following: Number of candidates for the ministry for the year, 74; total from the beginning (1,819), 3,164; whole number on the roll of the property of the second of the seco of the year, 375; in their theological course, 155; in their collegiate course, 156; in their academical course, 64;—the number this year being 130 below that of last year. The war, prostration of business, no reports from Southern Presbyteries, and the patriotism of pious young men, who so generally volunteered, are assumed as cauers of the falling off. The number of ministers, men-atio to the members is five per cent, which is thought to be an alarming fact.

The candidates' fund f r the year has been $39,-673 46—the payments $43 725 13; leaving a deficiency of $4,051 67. The receipts for 1860 were $64,637 19. After making allowance for the causes that have affected business generally, the causes that have affected business generally, the soldiers know it, and you have only to keep thought to be an alarming fact.

$1,255,050 To the Moderator of the General Assembly

DEAR SIR: The General Assembly having today received, reed, and referred to a select committee, an extraordinary letter from Dr. Robert J. Breckinridge, concerning a personal controversy now pending between himself of the first part, and the Rev. Messrs. Hoyt, Robinson, and others of the second part—which letter contains charges against the undersigned grossly unjust, and, if allowed to pass unchallenged upon your record, obviously injurious to the good name of four ministers of the Synod of Kentucky—the undersigned, therefore, begs leave through you to submit to the Assembly his solemn remonstrance against further proceedings in the case, with the grounds further proceedings in the case, with the ground obligation rests upon the Assembly to protect the character of profeseors in its Semunaries than that of the pastors of its Churches. Much less can there be any obligation to adopt extraordinary

Assembly is for not only extraordicary but extra-constitutional interference is manifest enough when it is remembered that, on the one hand, the The sale was quite largely attended, and the bidding was spirited.

An Expedition to Owen County.—We have the most gratifying accounts of the results of Cant. Blood's visit to Owen and the county of a professorable by many of a professorable by a professorable by many of a professorable by nation of a professorship, by means of which this case purports to come before the Assembly, should, according to the constitution of Danville Seminary, be laid before the Board of Directors of the Seminary, on six months' notice, to be by them referred to the Assembly.

arrested five or six of the leading rebels of Owen.

We have already published their names. Cap. Blood's visit to Owen, Trimble, and Henry counties have been productive of much good, and we confidently expect even more salutary results

And what renders this call for extraordinary and extraordinary and extra-constitutional methods of procadure the more unreasonable, is the notorious fact that the whole difficulty was begun by Dr. Breckinridge himself, in the first instance by a gross assault upon four of his brethren in a card appealing to Otis & Co.'s, 516 Main street, between Fifth and Sixth.

We have already published their names. Cap. Blood's visit to Owen, Trimble, and Henry counties have been productive of much good, and we confidently expect even more salutary results

And they have published nothing except in self-defence—first against the groundless charge of his card, and secondly in response to a highly injurious article in the Danville Review, which article of itself should exclude its author from all claim upon any special sympathy and countenance of Christian men. And the under-igned respectfully submits to the candor of the General Assembly whether one who has stirred up a disgraceful strife with his brethren and appealed to the tribunal of public opinion through the press, now when his assault opinion through the press, now when his assault is successfully repelled before the tribunal of his own choosing, has any claim to an appeal, in this and the Church with a disgraceful personal quar-rel except under the restrictions of judicial trial according to the forms of the constitution. At the same time, however, he does not mean by this remonstrance to waive any right, should the Assembly entertain the question further, to defend himself and assail his accuser, within the imits of any method of procedure adopted.

Nor does he feel the least concern touching the question whether he shall be able to justify his nduct in the premises before any impartial trib ent, the undersigned requests that the caid of Mr. Hoyt of May 11th, explanatory of his course, be made a part of this letter, and receive the same ction that the letter may receive. Respectfully, yours, STUART ROBINSON. Overtures were yesterday presented for the publication of a German Presbyterian paper and a German hymn book. Also, an overture, with the recommendation of three Presbyteries, for the union of the Old and the New School Churches, which recommendation it was decided inexpedient to act upon at this meeting, but the encourag-ment was declared that probably something could be done at the next General Assembly toward his desirable object.

After some business of little comparative mportance—
Dr. Scott, from the Committee on the Board of Education, reported a series of resolutions, to wit —Approving the wisdom and efficiency of its management during a year of great trial; thanking God for his blessing bestowed upon the work; deploring the failure of so many of the Churches in contributing to its funds during the year: for the ministry, and to seek out such as are really worthy and may stand in need of aid; that the amounts of annual appropriations to indi-vidual beneficiaries it is inexpedient to diminish the German St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum, on Monday, was put up at twenty-two dollars.

Wm. K. Thomas, Esq., was the fortunate winner. The bouquet was a creation of the taste of Mrs. Kitzero.

With Smeller ares it is hexpendent to diminish not withstanding the necessity of retrenchment in expenditures; rejoicing in the measure of success afforded Academies and Colleges connected with our Sessions, Prespective, and Synods, and urgaring the solemn duty of securing the religious education of the children of the Church by establishing and supporting suitable Church institueducation of the children of the Church by establishing and supporting suitable Church institutions; that the last Thursday of February next be observed throughout our bounds as a day of earnest prayer for children and youth, especially those baptized and those collected in schools and colleges, and also of liberal collection for the College funds; and that the Committee appointed by the last Assembly to revise the Constitution and By-laws of the Board be continued with instructions to report at the next meeting.

These resolutions, especially that touching the recommendation of candidates, were extensively discussed. There seems to be a determination to secure a higher grade of qualification in respect to piety, talent, and speaking ability for admission to the erjyment of the funds of the Board provided for the education of poor young men for the ministry. The debate continued till adjournthe ministry. The debate continued till adjourn

Prayer by Dr. McCoy, who, as did the Moderator this morning, prayed earnestly for the country. Dr. Breckinridge's Deliverance, which was forwarded to yeu last night, seems to have aroused the Union feeling of the Assembly. Previously to the opening of the Doctor's budget on the relations of the Church to treason and rebellion, there had been but one mention of the country and her trials in about a score of petitions to the Throne of Grace, and that was by the Mode Throne of Grace, and that was by the Mod erator, Dr. Beatty, who brushed it over lightly and passed on to topics of a less delicate nature. The line of policy indicated in the previous Mod rator's sermon at the opening of this Assembly eemed to have entirely quieted all patriotism. t was painful to sit in such a great body of maser spiri's whose hearts seemed so cold towards the country and the Union in this crisis. But the atmosphere is now clear, and the country re-ceives a reasonable measure of attention.

Some overtures from the Senators of Missouri and Baltimore, that could not hold their last annual meeting in consequence of political troubles, and asking authority to meet in favor-able places, were adouted

FROM CORINTH.—The following despatch was received at headquarters in St. Louis on Tuesday. The Republican says the letter spoken of is evidently one that has been intercepted: "A letter from a Regimental Quartermaster at Corinth to his wife, says they (the rebels) are 'gone up.' They have scant ten days' rations, and can get no more. Thinks there will be no fighting, as Halleck has cut off their supplies."

May 20, 1862. GENTLEMEN: We have been considerably noved, at timer, in our pleasant little cump, sudden rumors of Morgan's bard making the way to our camp. At one time our scot brought in elligence into camp that there we two hundred of them eccamped in a cane bray on the Cumberland river. We prepared to put them a visit, but when we reached the place the bad disappeared across the river. had disappeared across the river. One night week the intelliger ca was brought to I ieut. Los well, who is in command of this post, that the well, who is in command or this post, that there were three of Morgan's spies in the neighborhood. The Lieutenant sent a squad of men out, which succeeded in capturing them, and conducted the gentlemen into camp. We kept them a few days, and then delivered them up to headquarters at Nashville. They professed to belong to the Thirteenth Kentucky Regiment, but their uneasiness when they were informed that they had to go to when they were informed that they had to go t Nashville convinced me that they were some

This part of Tennessee is full of just such me prowling through the country since Morgan's d teat at Lebanon, and they may expect to be take in if they come sneaking around our camp, for we have just the officers to do it, and the privates will e tardy in doing their duty.

Tunstall Station, Va, May 21.

The pickets of the enemy were driven across Bottom Bridge yesterday by the troops advancing in that direction. The enemy attempted to regain the post by the use of their artillery, but failed. Our batteries opened on them, shelling the woods on each side of the bridge.

The advance under Gen. Stoneman reached Newbridge yesterday, within eight miles of Richmond, but found no enemy in force this side of the Chickahominy, which at that point is a small creek. The country in that locality is in a good state of cultivation. Six pieces of smillery were found posted on the opposite bank, but his purfound posted on the opposite bank, but his purfound posted on the opposite bank, but his pur poses not being to bring on an engagement, h retired one mile from the bridge and encamped. WASHINGTON, May 21. Permission has been given to state the facts in regard to the French Minister's visit to Richmond, which has excited so much attention in this country and in Europe. M. Mercier had no instruction from his Government, nor had it the least knowledge of his intention to go to Richmond. M. Mercier, conversing with Mr. Seward, expressed his regreat that he could not see Pick. mond. M. Mercier, conversing with Mr. Seward, expressed his regret that he could not see Richmond, and judge for himself about the views and expectations of the insurgents. Mr. Seward said he could go without any objection from this Government; that he wished every Foreign Minister would go and see for himself how hepeless the insurrection was. M. Mercier went unofficially. He heard and saw for himself, of course in no way acting or speaking for his Governmeet, or compromising his relations toward the United States.

The President was previously consulted, and The President was previously consulted, and approved of his going. When he returned he called immediately on the Secretary, and afterwards upon the President, and communicated to them frankly the impressions that he received. He allowed no one in Richmond to say anything to him that he should not be at liberty to communicate to the President and Secretary of State and he neither communicated to the rebel leader anything from this Government, nor anything om them to this Gevernment. He held no offi cial communication with any one, nor did he permit himself to receive official attentions. M. Mercier's whole conduct in the transaction was discreet, loyal, and friendly WHEELING, May 21. A destructive tornado occurred at two o'clock this evening, unroofing and demolishing the Lutheran Church, which was occupied at the time as a school, killing three and woulding six schol-lars. It also partilly unroofed the St. Johns Epi copal Church, and demolished the upper works t the steamer Mariner, bound down with troops. The captain, mate, and pilot of the Mariner were somewhat injured, but no lives were lost. The hull and cargo of the boat were saved.

XXXVIITH CONGRESS-FIRST SESSION. SENATE. Washington, May 21. Mr. Wright, of Indiana, offered a resolution that the Military Committee be instructed to in-quire into the expecietcy of reporting, at an ear-y day, a bill providing a suitable bounty for the oldiers enlisted for three months, and one year; and also for pensions for the widows of soldiers the die in the service. Adopted.

The bill donating public lands for the benefit of agricultural collegs and mechanical arts was taken up. The discussion was continued until one o'clock, when the confiscation bill, being the pecial order, was taken up.
Mr. Fessenden moved to take up the tax bill.
Mr. Foster, of the Committee, by consent, offered a resolution in regard to the impeachment

f West H. Humphreys, that the Senate will to-norrow resolve itself into a Committee of Im-seachment on the case of West H. Humphreys, nd the Vice-President shall administer the folowing oath to the Senate:

dollars, and twelve months from this time it will be four hundred dollar. Where is the evidence that any other people have been so burdened in so short a time? In conclusion, he (Voorhees) expressed the hope, and predicted, that the people would rise in their might and send better representatives—representatives who will be governed by the teachings of the Bible and the Constitution; and that the Union will be re-established on the principles of justice and christianity.

Mr. Morrill, of Vermont, controverted Voorhes' figures as to the expenditures. figures as to the expenditures.

Mr. Kelly was severe upon Mr. Voorhe', and accused him of sympathizing with traitors, saying that Floyd, Cobb, and others were thieves ing that Floy, Coob, and others were thieves under the gentleman's own party Administration. The present condition of the country was the natural result of the treatment of the people, received at the hands of the Democratic party. It made our country the plunderer of nations, provided they were feeble—fillibustering became identified with Democracy during the last.

dias Southern Rights speakers, the right, under he laws of the United States, and this State, o take the stump in every county, and uphold, by every argument and device they can possibly ring to bear, the so called Southern Confed-racy and this wicked rebellion? 2d. Have they a right, under the same, to can-rass the counties of this State for office, and sim, so doing, to keep up a disunion organization 31. Is the disunion party in Kentucky to be regarded as a lawful party, and treated as such before, by the Union men, and regarded as such at the coming August election by the efficers of the 4th. Aside from the above, don't you think that now is the time for the Union party in this State to have speakers in every county from this to the election—fearless and daring men, who understand how to meet and answer the thousand misseureserations that have been used to poison the representations that have been used to poison the ninds of the uneducated and unsuspecting portion of our people? Is it not reasonable to suppose that hundreds and thousands of our best sorphose that nundreds and thousands or our obsections have been deceived, humbugged, and converted over to the disunion ranks by the lowest appeals to their passions and sectional prejudices, by the secession demagogues, writers, and

Is it not equally true that one of the mospowerful revolutions in the minds of the honestly decived and deluded disunionists can be brough than are required in her bounds, let her send them to some other county that has few if any efficient speaking men. What county or counties will, through your paper, show us that they are willing to take the star? We have thousands of speakers, able speakers, in this State, many of whom are now holding effice, with an equal number who desire to be in office, t wish above all things to see this glorious Un-restored and the rebellion subdued, who sit their easy chairs and expect the Louisville Jou nal, Louisville Democrat, and Frankfort Commwealth, McClellan, Halleck, and Buell, and brave soldiers to accomplish one of the mighties works that the history of the world ever present ed, namely, the subduing, by the most able con servative editorials on your part, and the almos equal skill of the generals and unparalleled bravery of our volunteers, this most stupendous unjustifiable, and wicked rebellion. Can they sit still with their arms folded in this rying part of the history of this great and go country and call themselves Union men, wh they are too lazy, stingy, or cowardly to take the stump and leave nothing undone to undeceive the bumburged and deluded portion of our fellow citizens? It is much better to convince them of their wrong and restore them to the position of good and loyal citzons by fair argument than to accomplish it at the point of the bayonet and with lead. For this class of disunionists in our been deceived and are honest in their convictions. Of them the leaders make their soldiers and stepping stones to office and power. The leading secession office seekers dread an army of Union speakers in this State more than they do an argual number of Union soldiers, since they are exceedingly anxious that all whom they have deceived should remain so, and they know when these honest men hear good cound Union speakers, their treasonable party in this State will tumble to pieces much faster than its was formed. Their object is to make as little noise and as little excitement as possible, but at noise and as little excitement as possible, but a the same time to be thoroughly organized, so a to fill any office in their power, in every county The House resumed the consideration of the of the State, at the ensuing August election onfiscation bill.

Being an Ohio boy myself, I am thankful for such praise, which we do not merit. Kentucky has done nobly by the Ohio soldiers and we love to return compliments. Although I am in this State I have the care of both Ohio and Kentucky men, and as Kentucky has so amply provided for Ohio's noble sons, we think that Ohio ought to have a chance to return the compliment by the same method. Nowhere have the Ohio treops met with as warm a reception as in this State. The subject of lake defences and lake commerce was very forcibly and fully presented this morning at a meeting of the New York delegation in Congress, by Hon. Samuel B. Ruggles, who appared in behalf of the State.

The principal topics discussed were the present undefended condition of the lakes, and the great extent and rapid growth of the commerce on those waters; also the vital importance of the cereal products of the States surrounding the lakes in furnishing the elements of foreign commerce, and consequently in swelling the amount of duries on imports to be received in exchange.

The two cardinal measures growing out of these discussions, and which must occupy the attention of Congress, will be the opening of adequate channels from the eastern and western extremities of the lakes.

WASHINGTON, May 20.
All here are filled with expectation of a great battle at Corinth and Botton Bridge before the week ends. It is expected that these two battles will probably conclude the campaign and leave nothing else to be done but put down the guerilla fighting.

The recent proclamation of the President begins to give great satisfaction to all classes. The conservatives are satisfied and the ultras dire not find fault. It is manifest to all that Mr. Lincoln has taken the bit in his teeth and intends to have his own way, cabinet or no cabinet. The genera impression here is since the utterance of the pro clamation there is no one that can approach Abraham Lincoln in popularity. It is regarded as an evidence of uncontrolable firmness and true rance and was attended with no political result The Paris correspondent of the new Confederate The Paris correspondent of the new Confederate organ, the Index, asserts that Mercier's visit was under instructions to ascertain certain points, and will report in person to the Emperor.

The Independence Belge asserts that the object of Lavalette's recent visit to London was to induce England to consent to common intervention in America, and England agreed on condition that the Roman question was first settled.

The French Government gave ear to this, and it has led to a conference that relates to intervention.
